

Holroyd was a natural born leader, already making an impact in his community. He was active in the First Baptist Church in Princeton, WV as well as the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 1, in which he attained the rank of Eagle Scout. While at Princeton High School, Holroyd was a member of the nationally ranked Princeton High 1948–49 debate team. As a result of his successes early in life, Holroyd received a 4-year scholarship to West Virginia University.

At West Virginia University, he majored in political science and speech. During his tenure at the University, Holroyd left Morgantown and joined the United States Marine Corps during the Korean Conflict. Holroyd served on active duty for 3 years and served with special assignments to military police. In 1954, Holroyd became a Marine reservist and returned to Morgantown, WV to finish his undergraduate studies, and pursue law school. He graduated with a law degree in 1958 and returned home to Princeton, WV, to practice law.

Holroyd's interest in politics blossomed after law school, and in 1960, he became very active in President John F. Kennedy's primary campaign in southern West Virginia. In Princeton, Holroyd was assistant prosecuting attorney from 1961–1964. In 1964, he was elected to the West Virginia House of Delegates and served as prosecuting attorney of Mercer County from 1965–1967. Besides working on President Kennedy's campaign, Holroyd continued supporting the Democratic Party by serving on the West Virginia State Democratic Executive Committee for two terms, as well as being a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1976.

Holroyd served West Virginia as a consultant to the Governor's Committee on Crime and Delinquency and Correction and the International Association of Chiefs of Police. He was also an instructor on Criminal Law and Procedure at West Virginia State Police Academy and West Virginia Basic Police Science Courses at Institute, WV. Holroyd also served the Police force by being a guest instructor at Bluefield State College, Police Service Department and as an adjunct professor at Marshall University.

Throughout his community, Holroyd was a past member and officer in Princeton's Junior Chamber of Commerce. He was an active member in the Princeton Rotary Club, and is a current member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars—VFW, American Legion, Elks, Moose, Mercer County and West Virginia's State Bar Associations.

Husband to Emilie Norwood Adams, father to Elizabeth, William and Mary Jacqueline Holroyd, and grandfather to four, Holroyd has served his family, his State, and his country. West Virginia is proud and honored to say he represents the State, and I am proud and honored to say he is a dear friend. West Virginia thanks him for his extraordinary service and for his leadership some 25 years ago that make this anniversary possible for the Princeton Health Care Center nursing home.●
